

RAPIBLYK - (280MG/Vial ; Powder)

| | | | |
|------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------|---------------------|
| Generic Name | LANDIOLOL HYDROCHLORIDE | Innovator | AOP HLTH US |
| Dosage | 280MG/Vial ; Powder | Branded US Sales | Less Than $1000 mn |
| Probable FTF | None | Known Para IV Filers | None |
| Other ANDA developers | None | Tentative Approvals | None |
| Final Approvals | None | Generic Launches | None |
| Indication | RAPIBLYK is a beta adrenergic blocker indicated for the short-term reduction of ventricular rate in adults with supraventricular tachycardia including atrial fibrillation and atrial flutter. | | |
| Complexities | Yes | | |

Chronology Of Events

Please Contact contact@researchdelta.com to get Detailed Information.

Executive Summary

Please Contact contact@researchdelta.com to get Detailed Information.

Patent Status

Please Contact contact@researchdelta.com to get Detailed Information.

Launch Timelines and Competition

Please Contact contact@researchdelta.com to get Detailed Information.

Chronology Of Events

Please Contact contact@researchdelta.com to get Detailed Information.